

Ribeirão Preto, 1982, Brazil

Lives and works between Lisbon and São Paulo

Adriano Amaral engages in an alchemic artistic process, employing synthetic and organic compounds as well as video, light and sound. The materials and objects in his work form rare combinations that deny a categorical logic or hierarchy and acts to decontextualize architectural spaces with a sensitivity to the viewer's physical presence.

After finishing his Master's degree in London's Royal College of Art in 2014, Adriano took an art residency in De Atelier, Amsterdam in 2016 and was granted the Mondrian Fonds Work Contribution Proven Talent in 2017.

His recent exhibitions include solo projects at Vleeshal Zusterstraat, Netherlands, Bielefelder Kunstverein, Germany, and Galeria Jaqueline Martins in São Paulo, Brazil. Group shows include projects in Sixty Eight Art Institute, Copenhagen, Modern Art Museum, Moscow and Beelden Aan Zee, The Hague - Netherlands.

Adriano Amaral Bio/Release

Ribeirão Preto, Brasil, 1982

Vive e trabalha entre Lisboa e São Paulo.

Adriano Amaral desenvolve um processo artístico alquímico, empregando materiais sintéticos e orgânicos, além de vídeo, luz e som. Os materiais e objetos presentes em seus trabalhos formam raras combinações que negam uma lógica hierárquica entre eles e atuam para descontextualizar espaços arquitetônicos através da presença física do espectador.

Depois de concluir seu mestrado no Royal College of Art de Londres, em 2014, Adriano fez uma residência artística em 2016 no De Atelier, Amsterdã, e recebeu o Mondrian Fonds Work Contribution Proven Talent em 2017.

Suas recentes exposições incluem projetos solo na Vleeshal Zusterstraat, Holanda, Bielefelder Kunstverein, Alemanha, e Galeria Jaqueline Martins, em São Paulo, Brasil. Exposições coletivas incluem projetos no Sixty Eight Art Institute, Copenhague, Museu de Arte Moderna de Moscou e Beelden Aan Zee, em Haia, Holanda.

Adriano Amaral tem o apoio do Mondriaan Fund.
